

Psalm 14

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ Fools have said in their hearts 'There is no God':
they have all become vile and abominable in their doings,
there is not one that does good.
- ² The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of Adam:
to see if there were any who would act wisely and seek after God.
- ³ But they have all turned out of the way, they have all alike become corrupt:
there is none that does good, no not one.
- ⁴ Are all the evildoers devoid of understanding:
who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not pray to the Lord?
⁵ They shall be struck with terror: for God is with the company of the righteous.
- ⁶ Though they frustrate the poor in their hopes: surely the Lord is their refuge.
- ⁷ O that deliverance for Israel might come forth from Zion:
when the Lord turns again the fortunes of his people,
then shall Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

WELCOME

Sentence:

'I am the living bread that came down from heaven,' says the Lord. 'Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'
John 6.51

Collect:

Gracious God,
you have placed within the hearts of all your children a longing for your word and a hunger for your truth: grant that, believing in the one whom you have sent, we may know him to be the true bread of heaven and the food of eternal life, Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be glory and honour for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings for Today:

2 Samuel 11.1-15, Psalm 14, Ephesians 3.14-21, John 6.1-21

Reflection

Three miracles in one reading – Jesus feeds the crowds, Jesus walks on water, and a boat turns up immediately at the shore of the land to which the disciples were heading. It's very easy to disparage miracles in our modern day. We like to rationalise much of what happens around us. But despite all that, miraculous things happen around us every day: the birth of a baby, the beauty of a flower, the love of a spouse or friend. Sure, these can be explained rationally, but isn't it better to know, for example, how love feels rather than being given a lecture about testosterone, oestrogen dopamine, norepinephrine, serotonin, oxytocin and vasopressin. Sorry, didn't mean to kill the moment!

- Lord, help us to see the miracles that occur all around us day by day. Help us never to lose our sense of wonder.
- Give thanks for the Church of North India, remembering especially today their ministry in a predominantly non-Christian context

Prayer of the Week

O God,

the protector of all that trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy, that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal that we finally lose not the things eternal. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord.. Amen.

News from the Diocese:
