

Psalm 138

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ I will give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing your praises.
- ² I will bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name: because of your faithfulness and your loving-kindness, for you have made your name and your word supreme over all things.
- ³ At a time when I called to you, you gave me answer: and put new strength within my soul.
- ⁴ All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord: for they have heard the words of your mouth;
- ⁵ And they shall sing of the ways of the Lord: that the glory of the Lord is great.
- ⁶ For though the Lord is exalted, he looks upon the lowly: and he comprehends the proud from afar.
- ⁷ Though I walk in the midst of danger, yet will you preserve my life: you will stretch out your hand against the fury of my enemies, and your right hand shall save me.
- ⁸ The Lord will complete his purpose for me: your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever; do not forsake the work of your own hands.

Reflection

Much is made of St Peter's denial of Christ just before the Crucifixion. In today's Gospel reading, however, we see another side of him: Jesus tell him to go out into the deep water and lay his nets. Peter, quite reasonably, explains to the rabbi that he and his team have been out fishing all night but have not caught a thing. Nonetheless, he obeys Jesus' command and has a catch so big that he realises Jesus' divinity and asks him to leave because he is but a 'sinful man'.

- Pray for those who think that they are not good enough for God, that they are so unworthy that God cannot love them.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Alliance for Development, Relief and Advocacy and its new Executive Director, Rob Dawes

Prayer of the Week

Father of all,

who gave your only-begotten Son to take upon himself the form of a servant and to be obedient even to death on a cross: give us the same mind that was in Christ Jesus, that, sharing in his humility, we may come to be with him in his glory; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
